Description

Slagteriet is epicenter for cultural- and creative entrepreneurship in Holstebro and houses a diversity of youth environments as, street sport, art, music, creative production and much more.

The art gable in Holstebro is placed on a wall on one of the buildings at the city's self-governing institutions Slagteriet S/I, which is targeting the global goal gables in its active work as a production house for cultural- and creative entrepreneurship. The art gable will focus and deal with the transition from industrial production to cultural production. Slagteriet will be providing production elements from the past times as a pig slaughterhouse, as materials for the decoration. Furthermore we wish that the art gable can be part of beautifying our city space facing north with planting, as part of the artwork.

The wall is facing north. The art gable is estimated to be dimensioned; 20 meters wide x 5 meters tall on the part of the wall we want to have decorated.
